Personal Applications:

Goal: 2 Corinthians 2:14 – 3:9

1. In verses 14 -16, Paul uses the metaphors of “fragrance” and “aroma”. What is Paul trying to say to the Corinthians through these words?

What “fragrance” should characterize a Christian today?

List several practical ways we develop this type of “aroma” in our lives?

(Bonus Question) How do these verses relate to verse 17?

2. What point(s) is Paul making to the Corinthians in verses 1 – 5?

What “proof” or “accreditation” does our ministry need? From whom?

3. Now to verses 6 – 9 where Paul contrasts “the letter” with “the Spirit”. What are some contrasts you see?

Sometimes Christians struggle between living under Law versus living under grace. What is the correct application of what is being taught here?
