

Memory Verse:   “Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of mercies and God of all comfort;” 2 Corinthians 1:3

Study Questions:2 Corinthians 1 Review

1. Matching.

_____ Paul

a. all born-again Christians called out from the world

_____ Timothy

b. a friend, and brother in Christ to Paul, not the writer of this book

_____ the church

c. undeserved favor

_____ grace

d. an apostle and writer of this book

2a. What word is used a lot in chapter 1?

2b. How can you comfort someone else?

3. What happens to Christians that really live “all out” for Jesus?

4. What can you do to have a clear conscience?

5. What can you do to receive correction willingly and learn from it?

2 Corinthians 2 Review

6a. If you see a friend of yours doing something wrong, what would you do?

6b. What would help them receive your correction properly?

7. Matching.

- |                  |  |
|------------------|--|
| _____ sorrow     | a. to be unaware of something  |
| _____ to forgive | b. to feel very sad, upset   |
| _____ Satan      | c. to not hold a grudge against someone who is sorry for what they did |
| _____ ignorant   | d. the evil one that is against what God wants.                        |

8. How do you ask for forgiveness?

9. How do you forgive someone else that has wronged you?

10. How can we be a “sweet aroma” for God?

2 Corinthians 3 Review

11a. What are some things you can do that please God?

11b. What things displease God?

12. Do those around you know you are a Christian? How do they know?

13. If someone asked you, “How do you become a Christian?”, what would you tell them?

14. Write a question you have about 2 Corinthians 1 – 3.