

Study Questions

July 2, 2003
1 Corinthians 10:25-33

1. Can we eat anything and not have any questions as to our conscience? If so, why?
2. What does verse 26 mean?
3. Is there liberty to eat if invited by an unbeliever to a banquet?
4. What should be done if someone says, "this is offered in sacrifice unto idols?"
5. From verses 29 and 30, give reasons to support your answer to question #4.

Study Questions

July 2, 2003
1 Corinthians 10:25-33

6. Can a Christian do all for the glory of God? If so, how?
7. Should a Christian try to avoid offending others? Why?
8. Why was Paul trying to please others?