

2 Corinthians 4-7 Review

Week 14

Memory Verse: “For our light and momentary troubles are achieving for us an eternal glory that far outweighs them all.” 2 Corinthians 4:17

Study Questions:

2 Corinthians 4 Review

1. What treasure do we have in jars of clay?
2. How is our gospel veiled, and how can we “unveil” it?
3. How do we carry in our bodies the death of Jesus, and also reveal His life?
4. Paul says that our most serious problems are light and momentary troubles, compared to an eternity of glory. List some troubles that you might consider this way.
 - a.
 - b.
 - c.

2 Corinthians 5 Review

5. List 3 ways you can make it your goal to please the Lord:
 - a.
 - b.
 - c.
6. What does it mean to be a “new creation” in Christ? How does a new creation act?

2 Corinthians 6 Review

7. Paul commends himself by listing the hardships he has endured. If you had to commend yourself as a Christian, how would you respond?
8. We are not to be yoked together with unbelievers. Give three examples of situations to avoid:
 - a.
 - b.
 - c.

And now two examples of acceptable interaction with unbelievers:

- a.
- b.

2 Corinthians 7 Review

9. Circle the sentences below which demonstrate Godly sorrow (in comparison to worldly sorrow).

“I wish I hadn’t left my bike out in the rain so it rusted.”

“I thought it was funny when I said it to her but was really ashamed afterwards. I have to apologize.”

“I feel very sad for people who don’t know the Lord.”

“There’s no purpose to my life, and I don’t care.”
10. Paul thanks the Corinthians for refreshing Titus’s spirit. What refreshes your spirit?