

Fear or Respect

“The fear of the Lord is the beginning of wisdom” Prov. 9:10 and “Perfect love casteth out fear” 1 John 4:18 are two statements from scripture. How can we understand and reconcile these two statements?

Lets start by defining fear. What are some different meanings of fear?

Definitions of the different Hebrew words for it were:

- fear
- reverence
- dread
- awe
- to be terrified
- to shake or tremble
- to be afraid

Fear of the Lord seemed to include a mixture of reverence, awe, and dread. It described the concept of true religion at the time. It was a recognition of God, His holiness, and our accountability to Him who can and will bring justice for our deeds.

Some characteristics and benefits of having a proper Fear of the Lord

- Genesis 20:11 — it was seen as a restraint of evil (Proverbs 16:6)
- Proverbs 1:7 — it is the beginning of knowledge and wisdom (Proverbs 9:10, Psalms 111:10, Job 28:28)
- Proverbs 8:13 — it is to hate evil
- Proverbs 10:27 — it prolongs life
- Proverbs 14:26 — it is strong confidence
- Proverbs 14:27 — it is a fountain of life
- Proverbs 15:16 — it is better than great treasure
- Psalms 19:9 — it is clean and enduring
- Psalms 86:11 — it is something to be asked for
- Proverbs 22:4 — it brings riches, honor, and life
