Right Now Counts Forever

"Time Well Spent"

By R.C. Sprout

1. All my time is God's time and all of my time is my time by His delegation. I am His steward, so I will give account.
2. Time is redeemed by concentration and focus. Focus on task at hand with fierce concentration, makes productive use of time.
3. The mind can redeem valuable time taken up by ordinary or mechanical functions. Thoughts during sleep, shower, walk, driving etc.
4. Use leisure time for pursuits that are life enriching. Reading, outside area of expertise, crossword puzzles, music.
5. Find way to cheat the "Sand Man." Retire 8-9 p.m. and when possible, rise at 4 a.m., for more productive use of time. From distractions and interruptions—study, write, and prayer.
6. Use drive-time for learning, lectures/instructional tapes.
7. A schedule is more liberating than restricting. Find time for leisure, recreation, and avocation. It helps us find the rhythm for a God-glorifying productive life.

Time in the Word

Colossians 3:16, Psalm 119:11, Acts 17:11, 2 Timothy 3:16, Hebrews 4:12

Rest

Mark 6:30-32

A Final Thought

James 4:17

Therefore, to him who knows to do good and does not do it, to him it is sin.
