

Questions:

1. What is the attitude expressed by the writer in each of these sections:

44:1-3:

44:4-8:

44:9-16:

44:17-22:

44:23-26:
2. What are some of the deeds of God that are brought to mind in verses 1-3?
3. Who or what was responsible for the victories of the children of Israel?
4. How can verses 5-8 apply to us?

-

5. Are the complaints of verses 9-16 fair?
6. What other book of scripture do these verses remind us of?
7. Is it ever right to question God this way?
8. Verse 22 is quoted by the Apostle Paul in Romans 8:36. It sits between the well known verses of encouragement, 8:28 and 8:38-39. How does it fit with them?
9. What is the heartfelt plea that concludes the Psalm?
10. What in this Psalm points to Christ?