

Questions:

1. In 45:1 the writer describes the ease with which his words come. Who is the real author?
2. We don't know exactly which king is exalted in Psalm 45, but of what royal line is he?
3. Assuming the king is a type of the Lord Jesus Christ, when will he ride out victoriously (45:4)?
4. For what aims will he do battle?
5. Verses 45:6-7 are quoted in Hebrews 1:8-9. What do we learn from that context?
6. What is the "oil of gladness"?
7. How does the advice of 45:10 reappear in the Gospels?

-

8. When will the rulers of the earth bring their riches to the beloved of the highest king?
9. What does verse 45:16 mean?
10. Read 46:1-3. How can these help us deal with current events that may trouble us?
11. Any idea what river is described in 46:4-5?
12. What are names given to God in Psalm 46 and what does each of them mean?
13. When will verses 46:8-9 come to pass?
14. What counsel does 46:10 have for us? Do we follow it?